

Ms. Woods graduated from Norfolk State College in 1971, where she majored in sociology and minored in history. She began teaching in Appomattox County Public Schools in 1971 and was currently in her 38th year of teaching here. She taught at ACHS 1972-1976 and she taught at AMS 1976-1985. From 1985-1989, she taught at both AMS and ACHS. Since 1989, she has taught in the social studies department at ACHS.

Ms. Woods will always be remembered for her contagious smile, her love of history, the great care she gave to all of her students and the thoughtfulness she showed to her colleagues. She was well known for bringing treats to staff and students. Ms. Woods was loved by her students and colleagues at ACHS. She touched the lives of hundreds of students during her teaching career. Ms. Woods believed in building relationships with her students and all those around her.